

LCC / Justice and Advocacy – Bread for the World

Organizing to End Hunger

Saturday, May 20, 2017

8:30 am - 12:00 n

Dubbs Community Center

457 W. Allen Street

Allentown, PA 18102

610-433-6421

As Bread for the World looks at what it will take to end hunger by the year 2030, we realize that we are moving into a new social and political landscape. To be effective, we need to hear about the priorities and concerns of our local churches and communities in order to decide how best to go about ending hunger in our state, nation, and world.

Please join us in conversation with Sheena Rolle, Bread for the World regional organizer.

Program:

8:30 am Registration, resources, coffee/tea & conversation

9am-12n Welcome, Introduction, Biblical Reflection

"Offering of Letters" Overview

Organizing to End Hunger - Lehigh Valley / Eastern PA

This event is free, but pre-registration is requested.

For further information and pre-registration (by May 18), visit bread.ppjr.org, or contact the LCC office at 610-433-6421.

Sponsored by the Justice and Advocacy Committee of The Lehigh Conference of Churches,
Bread for the World, and Second Harvest Food Bank.