

Congregations in Mission: Finding Common Causes IV

Thursday, May 10, 2012

6:30 - 9:00 pm

Location: St. John's United Church of Christ

36 S. Sixth Street
Allentown, PA 18101
610-433-0146

Program:

Have you ever felt, "If we just had more people, we'd get something started!"

Here's an opportunity to share ideas with like-minded people from other congregations. Many congregations have mission (outreach/social concerns/ peace and justice) committees that work on the same thing or have the same goal. Why not pool the energies and talents of these groups? This one-time event is intended to bring people together to network, brainstorm ideas, map out an expanded version of your own project, or create something entirely new – it's up to you!

Previous participants have found this program enjoyable and enriching. Come and share your causes– and meet new friends with common causes.

Schedule:

6:30-7:00 pm	Coffee, Cookies, Conversation, and Resource Displays
7:00-9:00	Structured conversation among participants to identify areas where we have similar goals and to form new partnerships.

The meeting room will have table space available for participants who have displays or resource materials to share.

Registration:

It will be helpful for our planning if you can let us know you are coming.
(There is no charge for registration)
